Retransmitted with compliments to the General Secretary to Government.

The Bye-laws may be approved. A slight alteration is suggested in clause 9. There is no object in vesting a Municipal Councillor with power to examine and pass an animal. It is not expected that he has knowledge of health condition of an animal. The altered clause would read as follows.

"No animal shall be slaughtered unless it has been examined and passed by the Veterinary or Sanitary Inspector, or any officer of the Municipality deputed for the purpose by the President or the Vice President.
